

Job search coaching for foreign-language speakers

Job search coaching includes Finnish language lessons as well as support for finding a job, internship or work trial place. You will meet with your coach from Arffman and the group face-to-face and remotely and learn Finnish from one of our Finnish teachers. The coaching includes both individual and group coaching, and the goal is to develop each participant's situation towards their own goal. The coaching is free of charge for the customer.

COACHING OFFERS YOU:

- Finnish language lessons focusing on employment vocabulary.
- a coach to support you in finding a job, educational path, or your own further path.
- networks with operators and organizations in the region.
- support and guidance in online job searches and official transaction services.

TO WHOM:

The language proficiency level of the participants must be A1-A2-B1.

The coaching is meant for unemployed foreign-speaking job seekers.
